

MAKING SENSE OF THE AMERICAN CIVIL WAR

Orientation for statewide program coordinators and scholars
November 3, 2011

Vinoy Renaissance Hotel
St. Petersburg, Florida
Grand Ballroom

Morning

*The morning session is open only to one coordinator and one scholar from each statewide program.
Please register for this session at <http://www.statehumanities.org/programs/nhc.htm>.*

10:00

WELCOME

Lainie Castle, ALA
Patti Van Tuyl, NEH

10:15 – 11:00

KEYNOTE ADDRESS / Q & A

Dwight Pitcaithley, Chief Historian, National Park Service (retired)

11:00 – 11:15

LET'S TALK ABOUT IT: PROGRAMS AND DISTRIBUTION

Frannie Ashburn, Director, NC Center for the Book (retired)

11:15 – 12:00

DISCUSSION: PROGRAM FORMATS AND DISTRIBUTION

Moderated by Frannie Ashburn, Lainie Castle, and Patti Van Tuyl

12:00 – 1:00

LUNCH BREAK -- - DISCUSSION WITH YOUR COLLEAGUES

Box lunches will be provided for program coordinators and scholars who register for the morning session.

MAKING SENSE OF THE AMERICAN CIVIL WAR

Orientation for statewide program coordinators and scholars
November 3, 2011

Vinoy Renaissance Hotel
St. Petersburg, Florida
Grand Ballroom

Afternoon

The afternoon session is open to anyone attending the National Humanities Conference. The model library program will include discussion of selections 4, 5, 6, and 7 (pages 41-71 in the America's War anthology).

1:00 – 3:00 MODEL DISCUSSION PROGRAM

Dwight Pitcaithley
Frannie Ashburn

3:00-3:15 CLOSING REMARKS